

Three Practitioner Trainings to Choose From

Online NLP Practitioner Certification

Our online NLP Practitioner Training is an independent study course which includes our twelve learning modules. Each module includes a manual, audio file and video files. At the end of each module you will be required to complete training assignments and report via online essay questions. Once course is completed, you will have an exit interview over the phone and receive your NLP Practitioner Certificate issued by iNLP Center and the International NLP Association. <http://inlpcenter.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/01/test.pdf>

Online NLP Practitioner Certification PLUS

Our Blended Learning NLP Practitioner Certification combines our traditional online training plus includes eight private sessions with an iNLP Center certified trainer. Unlike our One-on-One course which covers a 6-month duration, our Blended Learning NLP Certification is at your own pace, allowing you to schedule your one-on-one sessions whenever you choose throughout your training. This is a perfect fit for the student that wants to either work at a faster pace or take their time. Additionally, one-on-one sessions can be used to cover our personal development courses to allow for a fuller training experience focused on self-growth.

One-on-One NLP Practitioner Certification

This Personalized NLP Practitioner Training is a one-on-one bi-weekly (every other week) training with an iNLP Center trainer conducted via video conferencing. This NLP training is customized to your needs and life challenges in a life-coaching style where you learn NLP through personal exploration. This course takes 6 months to complete at which time you will receive your NLP Practitioner Certification.

Available after practitioner completion:

NLP Master Practitioner Certification Training

This Personalized NLP Master Practitioner Training is a one-on-one bi-weekly (every other week) training with Mike Bundrant conducted via video conferencing. This NLP training is customized to your needs and life challenges in a life-coaching style where you learn Master NLP material through personal exploration. This course takes 12 months to complete at which time you will receive your NLP Master Practitioner Certification. NLP Practitioner Certification from a reputable training center is required.

NLP Trainer's Training

This course teaches a master NLP practitioner how to teach NLP to individuals or small groups. Upon successful completion, a master practitioner is a certified iNLP Center trainer.
